
Don't be a Folk Song Society Dropout!

Your membership in the Folk Song Society of Greater Boston expires on the date shown on the mailing label of your newsletter. If you would like to remain an FSSGB member (we hope so!) and continue to receive the Folk letter and concert admission discounts, please use the form below to renew your membership. If not, we will continue to send you concert flyers (but not the Folk Letter) unless you notify us otherwise.

Please disregard this notice if you have sent in your renewal recently. Note that it may take up to three months before your renewal is reflected on your Folk Letter label. If you feel we have made an error in processing your membership or renewal, please let Mark Katz know at markkatz@mac.com or (617) 325-5147 (email preferred).

Privacy Information

Please complete this section regarding use of your membership information. If left blank, we will assume that permission is granted. This form supercedes any previous declaration.

The Folk Song Society publishes a membership list periodically. The membership list would be distributed only to members of the Society. Check all that apply.

- It's okay to publish my name, address, home phone and email address (if any).
- Do not publish my address.
- Do not publish my home phone number. Publish my work number instead.
- Do not publish my email address.
- Do not publish any listing for me at all.

The Folk Song Society occasionally gets requests from folk festivals, concert promoters or performers for address labels for a one-time mailing to advertise an upcoming folk event.

- It's okay to give a mailing label with my name/address to such persons or organizations.
- Do not give a mailing label with my name/address to such persons or organizations.

The Folk Song Society occasionally gets requests from folk festivals, concert promoters or performers for a copy of our mailing list so they can add our names to their own permanent list.

- It's okay to include my name/address in any list given to such persons or organizations.
- Do not include my name/address in any list given to such persons or organizations.
